

2010 Canadian IEEE Fellows

Christophe Caloz
École Polytechnique, Montréal
Montreal, Quebec, Canada
for contributions to the development and application of electromagnetic metamaterial structures

Norman Ross Chapman
University of Victoria
Victoria, British Columbia, Canada for contributions to geoacoustic characterization of ocean bottom environments

Zhizhang David Chen
Dalhousie University
Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada for contributions to time-domain electromagnetic modeling and simulation

Aniruddha M. Gole
University of Manitoba Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada for contributions to the modeling of power electronics apparatus

Maev Grigoryevich Roman University of Windsor Windsor, Ontario, Canada for contributions to high-resolution imaging, acoustic microscopy, and advanced material characterization

Leslie Ann Rusch
Université Laval
Quebec, Quebec, Canada for contributions in optical and wireless communications systems

Christian Schlegel
University of Alberta
Edmonton, Alberta, Canada for contributions to iterative demodulation and decoding in wireless communication

Robert Schober
University of British Columbia Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada for contributions to wireless communications

Abdel A. Sebak
Concordia University
for contributions to electromagnetics scattering, and design and modeling of antennas
